

Children's handicrafts: Painting and planting clay pots

Instructions No. 3339

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour 30 Minutes

Welcome to our creative guide! Would you like to create unforgettable moments with your children while making beautiful decorations? Our painted terracotta pots are the perfect activity for birthday parties, kindergarten, or any day that calls for a bit of color and creativity. Get inspired by this step-by-step guide and create unique masterpieces with your children!

Step 1: Preparation

Before opening the paint pots, give them a good shake. Make sure your clothing is okay to get stained. Place newspaper on the table to protect it from paint splatters.

Step 2: Painting the Pots

Each child selects their favorite color. Apply the paint generously and ensure to brush in the same direction to make the surface nice and even.

Step 3: Drying

Now, you have to wait for about 15-30 minutes until the paint is dried. Use this time to maybe eat cake together and enjoy the moment!

Step 4: Filling with Soil and Plants

Once the pots are dry, fill them with some soil.

Then, place the small plant into the pot.

Step 5: Adding Soil

Fill the pot with soil and press it down gently.

Step 6: Watering

Don't forget to water the plant well. This will help it develop well and stay beautiful for a long time.

Sense of Achievement

Now, each child has a unique, handcrafted pot as a memento. This crafting activity is not only a great experience but also leaves lasting memories!
