There is nothing better than to surprise friends and family at a family celebration with a festively decorated, self-decorated table.

Many ideas for the perfect festive mood

Self-sewn table ribbon + cloth napkin

Table runners can be quickly sewn from plain coloured Cotton fabric ones. The fabrics by the meter one in our online shop is 150 cm wide - from 2.10 m Cotton fabric you can sew 3 table runners with approx. 35 cm and 4 fabric napkins of 40 x 40 cm each - all plus 1 cm seam allowance each. Fold the seam allowances twice and sew the edges with a matching Yarn.

Extra tip: Fold the finished fabric serivette together with a festive paper napkin.

Mini board

Use chalk to write a personal message on small miniature boards and stick small decorative bows made of Lace ribbon.

Gift folding box for guests

Decorate simple folding boxes with pastel-coloured photo cardboard, the accessories "fish" and your handlettering message (thank you).

Personal candle design is very simple

Festive tea light glasses

Stick fish accessories (orHandicraft glue hot glue) on the tealight glasses Cube and fill them with a candle wick and candle sand in and white.

Personal baptism or communion candle

With decorative wax plates, strips and a candle pen, an inconspicuous candle becomes a personal unique piece. Further motifs can be cut out of one Napkin and glued onto the candle with a candle pen. By the candle potch medium the napkin paper becomes hardly inflammable.

Casting design fish: that special something

Use the casting mould to cast fish and white Raysin casting powder according to the product instructions to create decorative fish with a ceramic look. Please also read our basic casting design instructions (instruction no. 1552)

To make a decorative fish with a candle, glue a candle spout for tea lights with hot glue into the mould fish. First the fish mould is poured. After hardening, a candle wick is glued into the spout and filled Wax for candles with.
