Miniature world in a suitcase

Instructions No. 2707

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 5 Hours

This little miniature world is a pretty decoration and in addition a great idea for a sweet souvenir or as a creative packaging for your gift of money. Learn here how you can recreate the suitcase.

Make a miniature candy store

First, line the inside surfaces of the suitcase: Design the raised back wall with napkin technique and glue the bottom with motif cardboard.

Paint all wooden parts in different pastel colors.

For the lollipops, glue colorful wooden balls onto round sticks and each of these into a wooden wheel. The wooden wheels serve as stands for the lollies. If the round sticks don't fit into the hole in the wheels, work them a bit with a pencil sharpener.

Cut foil from a cellophane bag and use it to wrap the lollipops. When these are then sealed with a sealing tape, the crafted lollipops will look deceptively real.

The painted wooden lentils become small candies, which are also wrapped in cellophane and made with sealing tape.

Arrange all accessories in the suitcase

Attach the gnome door , painted in bright pastel colors, to the back wall of the suitcase. The Paper lace doily becomes a pretty carpet. The lollipop stands can be wonderfully hidden under fairytale wool in the color and look of candy floss.

Now glue the table and chair into the miniature scene, arrange and fix the sweets in the suitcase. Finish off by decorating the edges of the suitcase with crochet edging - your miniature candy store is finished.
