Instructions No. 3195

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

Are you looking for a special, very personal gift for Valentine's Day? Why not lovingly design a wooden envelope with napkin technique and use it as a decorative "gift wrapping" for a movie-Voucher for Valentine's Day. Find out here how you can quickly recreate our idea.

With only a few simple steps, you can turn ordinary wooden envelopes into real works of art. The napkin technique offers a wonderful opportunity to design them creatively and very decoratively.

Priming
First of all, prime your wooden envelopes and the VBS scatter decoration Mila" heart with white handicraft paint. Allow everything to dry well before continuing. The white primer will later ensure that the napkin motifs stand out perfectly.

Motif selection
Choose the motifs you want from your napkins . Carefully cut or tear out the motifs so that they fit perfectly. Remember: you need only the top layer of printed paper. So remove the bottom layers of the napkin.

napkin technique
Apply some napkin varnish to the area you want to design with your motif. Place the cut-out napkin motif on top and coat it again with the napkin varnish. varnish. This varnish acts as both adhesive and protection and dries transparent.

Once everything is dry, stick two scatter decoration with VBS handicraft glue onto one of your designed envelopes. These little accents give your project a very special touch.

That's it!
Now you have unique wooden envelopes designed by you, for the Valentine's Day gift only insert a cinema-Voucher , for example!

Have fun making and, above all, giving!
